Personal characteristics

- I'm happy to learn new technologies and practices because nothing stays the same in the world of IT.
- Coming up with solutions to problems that occur on a daily basis, whether at work or in personal life.
- I consider myself a hardworking person who is willing and happy to help others.
- Besides, I like to be in the company of other people. And I'm also a very punctual.
- Since no one is perfect, I also have some disadvantages, such as occasional stubbornness.

Free time hobbies

- I played floorball competitively for several years and I still play it sometimes when the opportunity arises.
- Also playing the flute. I learned it while attending the Žerotín Music School, where, apart from playing solo, I also played in smaller groups and also in bigger groups, with which we competed, among other things, in foreign festivals.

¹Expected end of studies.
